DRESSER AT THE HELM

W. O. Dresser of Tonopah has added to his holdings in the Alamo Mining company, on the Nye-Lincoln line, due east of this city. He now owns four-fifths of this property. The stockholders' meeting will take place on March 10, when a new board of directors will be chosen and a plant of machinery ordered. Two caterpillar trucks will be used to transport the ore to the railroad.

DID NOT INTEND TO KILL HIS WIFE

ONLY INTENDED TO SLAY COL. BUTLER SEATED IN AUTOMOBILE

(By Associated Press.)
SAN ANGELO, Texas, Jan. 26.—Tears fell from the eyes of jurors who listened to the tensely dramatic story that Harry J. Spanell told, when, as a witness in his own defense, he recounted, incoherently, the scene in which his wife and Lieut. Col. M. C. Butler, U. S. A., were slain, and for whose deaths he is charged with murder. Spanell's insensate sobbing was echoed by spectators and court officers, whose sympathy had been aroused to a high pitch that was but visibly increased when the witness closed his story with the declaration:

"I never shot my wife. Butler moved out of the way, and Crystal fell. Butler also fell."

And as he was about to leave the witness stand, he sobbed:

"Thank God, I've prayed almighty God to let me tell it as it is. Thank God, Oh, Crystal!"

The story of the slaying, which occurred in an automobile near Alpine last July, as told by Spanell, accused Butler of being unduly attentive to Mrs. Spanell, culminating with the occasion when Spanell said he saw his wife leave Butler's room, where she had gone with Mrs. Butler, and said the army officer had insulted her.

The defense rested after introducing testimony bearing on Harry J. Spanell's story as to the killing of Col. M. C. Butler and showing that Butler was known among his soldiers as the "bull." Two witnesses testified that the "bull" was a "woman chaser."

MURDERER SENT TO THE INSANE ASYLUM

Victor Barron, the convict sentenced to the penitentiary for killing two section hands near Cuprite, this county, and who has been conspicuous in several savage assaults on guards and fellow prisoners at the penitentiary, has been committed to the insane asylum after an examination by Dr. MacLean, who pronounced him unfit to be without medical supervision. Two other convicts, J. F. Enkhous and William Switzer, were examined for lunacy at the same time and also committed to the insane asylum.

FRANCE REDUCES DINNER COURSES

RESTAURANTS BROUGHT UNDER CONTROL OF MILITARY AUTHORITIES

(By Associated Press.)
PARIS, Jan. 26.—France has followed the example of England and Italy by restricting meals at restaurants. Dinner hereafter will be restricted to hors d'oeuvres or soup, two other dishes, cheese or dessert. The bill of fare, including two main dishes, instead of 60 or 70 usually presented, is confined to maximum of nine, including one egg dish, three meat and three vegetables. The restrictions are taken in good part by the public, who recognize the importance of stopping waste. The order becomes effective February 15.

EQUIPMENT FROM COLONIA DUBLAN

RECORDS, SUPPLIES AND MUNITIONS ARRIVE FROM OVER THE BORDER

(By Associated Press.)
EL PASO, Jan. 26.—A part of the field headquarters equipment and baggage has reached Columbus, N. M., from Colonia Dublin, together with quantities of supplies and munitions, passengers arriving from there late yesterday said. Included among the headquarters baggage were a number of trunks containing the records of the expeditionary forces, they added. Reports from Mexico said that Maj. Gen. Pershing was preparing to move his headquarters to Ojo Federico, eighty miles north of the old base and forty miles from the border. Arrangements continue to be made in Columbus for receiving the expeditionary troops. After a brief rest, it was the plan to move the troops to El Paso, Douglas and other points on the border, where cantonments would be provided for them. Gen. Pershing is expected to make his headquarters in El Paso and will command the border troops in this district.

"I never shot my wife. Butler moved out of the way, and Crystal fell. Butler also fell."

And as he was about to leave the witness stand, he sobbed:

"Thank God, I've prayed almighty God to let me tell it as it is. Thank God, Oh, Crystal!"

WANT TO MAKE IOWA BONE DRY

SENATE ACTS FAVORABLY ON BILLS PROVIDING FOR PROHIBITION

(By Associated Press.)
DES MOINES, Ia., Jan. 26.—The senate committee on the suppression of intemperance has decided to report for passage three Whitmore bills which will make Iowa bone dry if the house also passes them. The bills prohibit the transportation of liquor from west state to Iowa by railroad or wagon road, makes the place of delivery the place of sale, and prohibits liquor advertisement in newspapers or soliciting sales of liquor by agents.

VILLA PROMISES TO PROTECT ALL ALIENS

FOREIGNERS INVITED TO RETURN TO THEIR ESTATES IN MEXICO

(By Associated Press.)
EL PASO, Jan. 26.—Circulars printed in English are being circulated here inviting all owners of foreign properties to return to that part of northern Mexico now held by Villa and offering guarantees to all who returned as well as protection for their property. The circular was signed by an American agent of Villa and was headed:

"Villa is the strong man of Mexico." Persistent rumors that Parral had been captured by a Villa force from the state of Durango were in circulation here. Refugees arriving from Parral yesterday reported Manuel Medina, a Villa commander near Parral with a small force. Carranza officials denied the rumor.

PRESSURE OF BUSINESS

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Pressure of legislative business again caused the senate to defer discussion of the president's peace address.

COYOTE KILLED EARLY TODAY

ONE OF A BUNCH OF NIGHT PROWLERS PAYS FORFEIT WITH HIS LIFE

There was excitement on the southern slope of Mount Brougher this morning shortly after daybreak at 6:30 when word was passed around that three coyotes were seen ambling home to the other side of the mountain towards the garbage dump. Bob Gholson, of the state police force, was on the ground and he began the bombardment with the effect of hastening the movements of the pests. While one of the coyotes was passing close to the high pressure water tanks a bullet caught him in the hind quarters and he was seen to roll over, but soon regained his feet and darted up the hillside, where all efforts to dislodge him by throwing rocks failed to bring him back.

The other marauders were not so fortunate, as one of them was torn almost to pieces by a steel bullet fired from a rifle directed by Walter Thatcher. The carcass was brought down to Main street by Officer Gholson, who exhibited the gory trophy to a large crowd of spectators. The previous morning it was reported that another band of coyotes were seen in the same vicinity and some shooting ensued without bagging any of them.

ALLEGED PLOT TO SMUGGLE GOODS

MEXICAN OFFICIALS DECLARE A SCHEME IS BREWING ON THE BORDER

(By Associated Press.)
EL PASO, Jan. 26.—A Carranza official declared smugglers are planning to use the Pershing withdrawal as an excuse to smuggle goods across the border. The plan is to use the troop movements to veil illicit exportation of cattle and hides. Pershing knows nothing of the operations. There is no duty on the expeditionary force's property.
